Date: 22.04.2022

Revised Academic Regulations for the (January-June 2022) based on UGC guidelines on Examinations and Academic Calendar.

1. Appearing in the end-semester exam is mandatory for all students. Students must register for the end-semester exams to be held in June 2022/and download their Hall ticket from – e-governance to appear for the exams.
2. The final result in each course shall be determined based on the continuous assessment and performance in the end-semester exams to be held in June 2022 which shall be in the ratio of 50:50 in case of theory courses
3. For the practical/Laboratory courses, the final marks shall be determined based on the continuous and end-semester exams assessment of the laboratory records and will be scaled to 100 marks.
4. In case of dissertations/project reports, the assessment will be made based on the report submitted by the internal committee(s) of the Academic units for the PG courses. All M.Tech project reports shall be evaluated by External Examiner
5. Final semester students having backlogs of previous semesters including foundation courses if any, and doing recourse in current semester will have to appear for the exams and pass all papers to be eligible for the award of Degree.
6. Academic units have to conduct the examinations in offline mode only.
7. As the offline classes started late, the attendance requirement of 75% is relaxed.
8. The Examination timings may be decided by the concerned faculty in consultation with the students to avoid any clash in time table, especially for foundation courses
9. The Supplementary/special supplementary/improvement exams will be conducted separately. A separate notification will be issued for the same.
10. PhD coursework evaluation shall be made based on the continuous assessment for 50 marks and end-semester exam for 50 marks.

Note:

All Academic Units are requested to check the mapping of courses, credits etc. of all the courses in e-governance portal and ensure its correctness before entry of marks for the January – June 2022. Earlier communication with regard to Revised Academic Ordinance for January-June 2022 semester may please be ignored.
