Note1: * at SNO refers to cases where candidates have obtained the same marks for the final seat in a particular category, requiring a tie-breaking process. Tie-breaking will take place at the admission venue, following the verification of original certificates. Based on the tie-breaking process (refer prospectus) only one candidate will be offered the seat, while the remaining candidate(s) will be considered in the waiting list.

Illustration & Example: For the 10th Seat (final seat in UR category) 3 candidates A, B & C have scored the same marks in CUET. Based on tie breaking rules at the admission venue, the seat is offered to C while A & B will be considered in the waiting list.

Note2: Seats will be allocated only to those candidates who are present and have all the required valid documents on the day of admission. Candidates failing to appear on the specified day will forfeit their seat, as listed in the provisionally selected list. No claims for reallocation or consideration will be entertained thereafter.
